

The International Journal of the History of Sport

Instructions for Publishers and Authors on Submitting Books for Review

Updated 16 December 2016

Preamble

The International Journal of the History of Sport values the time, effort and scholarship inherent in the publication of books dealing with the history of sport. We also consider the reviewing of books a worthwhile intellectual and collegial activity and encourage scholars from around the world to both submit their publications for review and to review the work of their peers.

Instructions for Authors and Publishers

Authors or publishers wishing to submit books for review are invited to contact Associate Professor Rob Hess at Robert.Hess@vu.edu.au in order to discuss whether or not a published work is suitable for reviewing in The International Journal of the History of Sport. Electronic versions of books are not accepted for review.

Hard copies of books for review should be posted to the address below. Please include 'IJHS' in the address (as indicated) to ensure items for review are allocated to The International Journal of the History of Sport.

Assoc. Prof. Rob Hess (IJHS)
54 Brunning Street
Balaclava
Victoria 3183
AUSTRALIA

Associate Professor Rob Hess maintains the Book Review Register for The International Journal of the History of Sport. Dr Fiona Skillen commissions and edits the reviews. The previous work and advice of Professor Mike Huggins, the long-standing Reviews Editor of The International Journal of the History of Sport is gratefully acknowledged.