

Area Studies Awards in Impact and Interdisciplinarity

To submit an entry for the Routledge Area Studies Award in Impact or Interdisciplinarity, please fill out this form, and email this completed form and the following information to areastudiesprizes@tandf.co.uk.

- Completed application form
- CV of the corresponding applicant
- A copy of one substantive, original peer reviewed journal article presenting the research
- A translation of the peer reviewed article, if the original article is not in English
- A maximum of five pieces of written, visual or statistical evidence to support your submission (excluding the journal article)

Full prize details are available at: <https://think.taylorandfrancis.com/routledge-area-studies-awards-2023/>.

1. Please indicate whether you are applying for the impact award or the interdisciplinarity award by marking a box below

Impact	<input type="checkbox"/>
Interdisciplinarity	<input type="checkbox"/>

2. Please provide the name and contact details of the corresponding applicant

Full name
Email address

3. Please provide details of all applicants

Full name and title	Institution/organisation/ independent scholar	Current position held (if applicable)

4. Please provide details of any contributors to the research

Full name & title	Institution/organisation/ independent scholar	Current position held (if applicable)	Contribution

5. Title of research project

6. Please confirm when and where academic journal articles from the research project have been published, or accepted for publication

Date of online publication*	Article title	Journal

*Acceptance date if not yet published online

7. Please provide details of any funding (including amounts and currency) that the research project received

8. Please provide a short summary explaining the nature of your research project using language that can be understood by a non-specialist audience. *Maximum 250 words.

9. Further to the original article(s) you have detailed under Q6, please provide a short summary of any other outputs that have arisen from your research project, e.g. conference presentations, posters, policy briefs, etc. Maximum 500 words.

10. Please outline either the impact achieved or the interdisciplinary collaboration employed (depending on which award you are applying for)
Maximum 500 words

11. Please disclose any potential conflicts of interest that may exist due to connections to members of the journal panel

The terms and conditions, and criteria for eligibility, can be viewed here.